

and on the line; breaks away quickly from the scrum onto the opposing

As a precursor to his role in World War One, he took a keen interest in the cadets. He was Lieutenant in command of the team that won the Snow Shield in 1912. Petre was also a keen debater and was elected onto the committee of the debating society in 1912. He was a deputy monitor in Deans Medal winner Rupert Hickmott.

The school magazine of 1915 records that it is hard to describe the sort of chap that Petre really was. High who had a greater affection for his school, or who was prouder of his connection with it. These feelings were readily translated into vigorous action when he found himself in a position to be useful after

After leaving school, Petre played rugby for High School Old Boys and was a rep player in 1913. He was appointed as a special editor of the school school years. Prior to his 1914, @ { } + the only subject that everyone seems to avoid is one that is really a real live one. We all expect to land

It is unknown when Petre left Cairo, for Gallipoli, but he wrote to the headmaster Charles Bevan-Brown in early 1915. His dedication to his old school was quickly revealed. These are some of his thoughts:

the chief mover, Captain Zealand in charge of the medically unfit unit and would not be back for Another Old Boy, Lieutenant Gordon Harper DCM wrote to the headmaster in 1915. He had this to say about Petre:

... company with Cookson to see me the day before he was killed. He and Cookson, with A.C.W. Bain were the three surviving members of a band of memorial being prepared for the Arts Centre, but please contact the school if there are still changes to be made that we are unaware of.

View the full list of old boys' names of those who have died in these wars.

Cyril F Carey Commemoration

Revisit our ANZAC 2014 Commemoration of Cyril F Carey, an old boy of CBHS (1906-1907). After the Christchurch earthquakes, his tattered scrapbook was found by a demolition crew in the debris of a house and was returned to his family. Lieutenant Cyril Fuller Carey died of wounds on November 7th 1916 at Sling Camp, Salisbury Plain, England. Read his story here.

CBHS ANZAC Day Prayer

Every year, we read aloud a prayer for the old boys who have lost their lives in the service to their country. You can find that prayer here for your review and reflection.